

Tempelec - Cookie Policy

Our website solely uses first-party cookies exclusively to facilitate basic session data for visitors who access our content.

In no way is personal data of any kind collected or retrieved by these first-party cookies under any circumstances.

None of the session data established by these first-party cookies is stored or retained after your session ends, and in no way does any of the established session data contain tracking mechanisms or technologies of any kind.

About Cookies

A “cookie” is a small text file that’s stored on your computer, tablet or phone when you visit a website. Some cookies are deleted when you close down your browser. These are known as session cookies. Others remain on your device until they expire or you delete them from your cache. These are known as persistent cookies and enable us to remember things about you as a returning visitor. To find out more about cookies, including how to see what cookies have been set and how to manage and delete them, visit www.allaboutcookies.org. Alternatively, you can search the internet for other independent information on cookies.

Use of cookies

Some features that are designed to give you a better online experience only work if we use cookies. We assume that by continuing to browse our site you are happy for us to use cookies.

Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to other websites related to the products we sell. We do not have any control over the content or actions of any other websites. Therefore, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by our privacy statement. Please read the privacy policy applicable to the website in question.
